

Improve your Farm Decision Making Workshop

Are you keen to improve your skills and knowledge to make effective and informed decisions when it comes to your farm business?

Victorian farm consultant, teacher and farmer Cam Nicolson is renowned for his expertise in the psychology behind decision-making. This workshop will help you enhance your decision making by exploring different types of decisions, how risk influences these decisions and how your personality affects the choices you make in your farm life. Cam will provide practical tips and approaches to improve your decision making in a thought provoking but relaxed environment.
